International Security Program Graduates
Securing Employment across Industries

Employment Industries*

- Federal Government: 35%
- Private Sector – Consulting: 42%
- NGO/Nonprofit: 5%
- Multilateral/International: 2%

Salary Range*

- $30,001-$50,000: 19%
- $50,001-$70,000: 37.5%
- $70,001-$90,000: 12.5%
- $90,001-$125,000: 25%
- Above $125,000: 6%

Top Employers Hiring International Security Alumni

- Booz Allen Hamilton
- National Nuclear Security Administration
- U.S. Department of Homeland Security
- Central Intelligence Agency
- T-Rex Corporation
- U.S. Department of State
- Deloitte Consulting
- The Cohen Group
- U.S. Department of the Navy
- Immigration and Customs Enforcement
- U.S. Department of Defense

International Security Program Graduates: Where They Work and What They Do

Career outcomes data were collected from graduating classes between August 2016 and May 2019.

Class of 2019 students with a postgraduation plan:

- Employment, graduate school, military service, or volunteer work

According to the 2019 U.S. News & World Report

No. 2 Security Studies Programs in the United States

Career outcomes data were collected through the Career Plans Survey sent to all George Mason University students graduating between the months of August 2016 and May 2019.