Prior to the PMF appointment, Dilan previously served in the executive branch and interned in the U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives. Currently, Dilan is a Foreign Affairs Officer at the U.S. Department of State.

SCHAR SCHOOL OF POLICY AND GOVERNMENT

Louie Al-Hashimi, <louie.alh@gmail.com>, Master of Public Administration, 2019.

Louie Al-Hashimi is a current Class of 2020 Presidential Management Fellow who was recently appointed as a Management & Program Analyst with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) in Atlanta, Georgia. He graduated with a Master's in Public Administration (MPA) from the Schar School this past August with a concentration in Policy Studies. This past summer, Louie participated in the virtual Urban Leaders Fellowship program to work on budgeting policies with D.C. Councilmember Trayon White and redesign a website for a school choice nonprofit in Oakland, California. Over the last year, he served as a Graduate Research Assistant for the Schar School and conducted research on Medicaid expansion at state and local levels, diversity and inclusion planning for the MPA program, and non-profit management. Prior to becoming a PMF finalist, Louie worked as a civil servant for Arlington County and Fairfax County in the fields of environmental services, social services, and community services. Additionally, he was a remote team member of LaunchGood, a crowdfunding startup based in Detroit that helps Muslims worldwide raise funds for charitable and creative projects. Louie received a Bachelor's in Economics from the University of Pittsburgh in 2014 and is a native of Pittsburgh where he currently resides.

Maureen Weiller Limon, <maureenweiller@gmail.com>, Master of Public Policy, 2018.

Maureen Weiller Limon is a current Class of 2019 Presidential Management Fellow. She was initially appointed in February 2019 as a Program Analyst at the Department of Health and Human Services, within the Center for Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight, where she worked on compliance and monitoring of insurance issuers operating in federal marketplaces. In August 2019 Maureen re-appointed to the Department of State's Bureau of Oceans and International Environmental and Scientific Affairs (OES), Office of Environmental Quality and Transboundary Issues (EQT). At EQT, Maureen works on international environmental policy, agreements, and negotiations. Much of her time is spent working on forums and issues related to plastic waste and marine litter. On September 14, Maureen began her four-month PMF rotation in the East Asia and Pacific Office in the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor (DRL/EAP). Prior to becoming a PMF, Maureen worked as a paralegal, TA’d for a George Mason University undergraduate course in Politics and Mass Media, and interned at the Environmental Protection Agency while completing her Master of Public Policy at the Schar School. She obtained her Bachelor of Laws and her Bachelor of Science (Resource and Environmental Management) from the Australian National University in 2015.
