Honor Code/Release Statement

George Mason University shares the tradition of an honor system that has existed in Virginia since 1842. The Honor Code is an integral part of university life, and it is the student's responsibility to understand the provisions of the code. Attempted cheating, plagiarism, lying, and stealing constitute Honor Code violations. In the spirit of the code, students and faculty members must report all violations to the Honor Committee. The Honor Code can be found in the University Catalog.

I certify all information given on the application is true and correct, and I will read and accept the responsibility of the Honor Code if I am approved for admission to George Mason University.

I understand that information about me known to the Admissions and/or the Office of Financial Aid may be used to evaluate my eligibility for a scholarship, and I authorize those offices to release information to the appropriate scholarship committees. I further authorize release of my application to third parties for the purpose of scholarship consideration. If selected for a scholarship, I authorize release of information to be given to donors or used in publicity related to the scholarship program. I further agree that I will notify the Office of Student Financial Aid of any changes (major, residence, etc.), which may affect my eligibility for a restricted award.
