Course Description
This course introduces students to policy and program evaluation. Topics include understanding the nature and rationale of, and the need for program evaluation; assessing program theory and design; assessing program process and implementation; measuring and monitoring program outcomes; understanding the effects of impact evaluation, comparison group designs, and designs with strict controls; detecting, interpreting, and exploring program effects; assessing the economic efficiency of program; planning an evaluation; and understanding the social and political context of evaluation. The final project will be a program evaluation synthesis of a (a) federal, (b) state, (c) county, or (d) municipal program based on the student’s choice.

Learning Outcomes
At the conclusion of this course, students should
• be knowledgeable about the general fundamental concepts of policy and program evaluation;
• be knowledgeable about select data utilized in select policy and program evaluations;
• be knowledgeable about select methods utilized in select policy and program evaluations;
• possess the skills needed to interpret results of select policy and program evaluations; and
• possess the skills needed to communicate and present research questions/goals, data, methods, and findings of select policy and program evaluations to public policy makers and other non-technical audiences in a way understandable to them.

Course Materials
Required Readings:

Course Requirements:
Prerequisite
Students who have not yet taken POGO 511, PUBP 511, PUBP 704, or an equivalent class need permission of the instructor.

Class Attendance/Participation/Behavior
Students are required to attend class. Many studies have shown a high causation between class participation and high grades. If students have to miss class for professional, i.e., a time conflict at work, or medical reasons they are expected to notify the instructor in advance and to familiarize themselves with the materials missed in class. Students are expected to prepare for class by studying the reading assignments before class, arrive on time, and to participate in class discussions.

Writing Assignments/Final Paper/Deadlines
The final project will be a program evaluation synthesis of six (6) evaluations of a (a) federal, (b) state, (c) county, or (d) municipal program based on the student’s choice. Class grades will be based on

- a first draft of the introduction of the synthesis of six (6) evaluations of the chosen policy or program (15% of the grade):
  - Microsoft Word document;
  - name of student;
  - title with name of discussed program and the term “synthesis;”
  - one page minimum, five pages maximum;
  - double spaced;
  - 12 pt. font;
  - document page number(s);
  - direct quotes need a page number; if there are no page numbers state “n.p;”
  - references in reference section in alphabetical order by last name;
  - American Psychological Association (APA) style https://www.apastyle.org/;
  - to be submitted to kanacker@gmu.edu by September 16th, 7:20 pm;
• a second draft of the introduction and a first draft of the data and methods sections of the synthesis of six (6) evaluations of the chosen policy or program (15% of the grade):
  o Microsoft Word document;
  o name of student;
  o title with name of discussed program and the term “synthesis;”
  o two pages minimum, ten pages maximum;

Assignment Submission, Late or Missing Assignments

Drafts are due as an e-mail submission to the instructor (kanacker@gmu.edu) at the beginning of class. A draft that was submitted after the deadline is considered late. Students will lose 20 (out of 100) points every 24 hours after the deadline. After five days assignments will not be evaluated by the instructor (i.e., zero grade). Final papers are due as a paper submission to the instructor at the end of the presentation. On the first day of class a sign up list for the final presentations will be made available. On presentation day, students are expected to arrive at the beginning of class (7:20 pm), i.e., students are discouraged from arriving at the presentation time predicted by them. A presentation that was not held in person, i.e., in absence, is not considered a presentation (i.e., zero grade). A final paper that was submitted after the deadline is considered late. Students will lose 20 (out of 100) points every 24 hours after the deadline. After five days assignments will not be evaluated by the instructor (i.e., zero grade). Students will lose 5 (out of 100) points for not submitting the final paper as a paper submission to the instructor at the end of the presentation.

Appeals on the paper grade must be made in writing within 72 hours after grades have been posted on patriotweb.gmu.edu Final class grades are non-negotiable.

Academic Accommodation for a Disability

Students with a disability or who need academic accommodations are encouraged to see the instructor and contact the Office of Disability Services. All academic accommodations must be arranged through Disability Services (http://ds.gmu.edu).

GMU/Schar School Policy on Plagiarism

The profession of scholarship and the intellectual life of a university as well as the field of public policy inquiry depend fundamentally on a foundation of trust. Thus, any act of plagiarism strikes at the heart of the meaning of the university and the purpose of the Schar School. It constitutes a serious breach of professional ethics and it is unacceptable. Plagiarism is the use of another’s words or ideas presented as one’s own. It includes, among other things, the use of specific words, ideas, or frameworks that are the product of another’s work. Honesty and thoroughness in citing sources is essential to professional accountability and personal responsibility. Appropriate citation is necessary so that arguments, evidence, and claims can be critically examined.

Plagiarism is wrong because of the injustice it does to the person whose ideas are stolen. But it is also wrong because it constitutes lying to one’s professional colleagues. From a prudential perspective, it is shortsighted and self-defeating, and it can ruin a professional career.

The faculty of the Schar School takes plagiarism seriously and has adopted a zero tolerance policy. Any plagiarized assignment will receive an automatic grade of “F.” This may lead to failure for the course, resulting in dismissal from the University. This dismissal will be noted on the student’s transcript. For international students who are on a university-sponsored visa (e.g., F-1, J-1 or J-2), dismissal also results in the revocation of their visa.
To help enforce the Schar School policy on plagiarism, all written work submitted in partial fulfillment of course or degree requirements must be available in electronic form so that it can be compared with electronic databases, as well as submitted to commercial services to which the School subscribes. Faculty may at any time submit student’s work without prior permission from the student. Individual instructors may require that written work be submitted in electronic as well as printed form. The Schar School policy on plagiarism is supplementary to the George Mason University Honor Code; it is not intended to replace it or substitute for it. http://schar.gmu.edu/current-students/masters-advising/academic-policies-forms/
