Individual check-out OR

Optional Excursion to the Magical town of Tepozlan, which includes lunch and hotel for Sat night.

9:30-3:30pm Day trip to the famous city of Tepoztlan. Tepoztlan was named one of Mexico's "Pueblos Mágicos" (Magical towns). It’s known as the reputed birthplace of Quetzalcoatl, the Aztec feathered serpent god, and for its weekly craft market. The architecture, cobblestone streets, brightly colored flowers, and warm weather makes this city a must to visit. A steep trail leads to the Aztec Tepozteco pyramid, on a clifftop above the town. A 16th-century former Dominican monastery, the Tepoztlán Ex-Convento, has a local history museum. The adjacent Carlos Pellicer Cámara Museum displays pre-Hispanic art. Students will have the opportunity, if they like, to hike up the Tepozteco Mountain and see the remains of the El Tepozteco temple. The Tepozteco Mountain is so mystical that it is known to be “purifying” and its summit offers a great view of the small temple. There will be a group lunch with breath taking views of the city and mountains and time to shop at the famous city’s craft market. The group will return to Cuernavaca for pool time and for participants to spend the evening at their leisure. Individual check-out on Sunday, January 19, 2020.

Returning to the MEX airport for individual flights back to the US.
Participants will be given bus tickets. There are airport buses that run every half hour directly from Cuernavaca to the Mexico City airport terminals. Plan to depart the hotel 4 hours before flight time. Delta and Aeroméxico depart from Terminal 2 and all other airlines from Terminal 1. The bus stops at both terminals.

Appropriate Dress:
Casual Dress is jeans or slacks and a conservative shirt. Sandals, sneakers are fine. Business Casual dress is slacks and a golf shirt/pullover a button down (tie is not necessary but no jeans, no T-shirts, no casual sandals, no sun/casual shirts or sundresses for the ladies). Business Dress is a suit and tie or a sports coat and tie for the men and a suit or dress (not a sundress) for the ladies with appropriate shoes (no casual sandals).

The schedule may change or be modified at any time.
