Tips for Obtaining a Security Clearance
What is a Security Clearance?

- Provides authorization for access to sensitive national security information.

- Required for federal & private-sector jobs that involve access to classified information.

- Three levels of security clearances:
  - Confidential (reinvestigation required every 15 years)
  - Secret (reinvestigation required every 10 years)
  - Top Secret (reinvestigation required every 5 years)
The Investigative Process

Conducted to determine if a person is able and willing to safeguard classified information, based on his or her loyalty, character, trustworthiness, and reliability

Tips and Reminders for Students:
- Always answer all questions on the form. If you forget something, just contact your security official.
- All information is confidential.
- Your current employer may be contacted during the investigation.
- The employer requests the investigation or clearance level based on the job. You can’t choose your clearance level.
Electronic Questionnaires for Investigations Processing (e-QIP)

Welcome to the Electronic Questionnaires for Investigations Processing (e-QIP) system. e-QIP is a web-based automated system that was designed to facilitate the processing of standard investigative forms used when conducting background investigations for Federal security, suitability, fitness and credentialing purposes. e-QIP allows the user to electronically enter, update and transmit their personal investigative data over a secure internet connection to a requesting agency.
